Dear Recipients,

9/29/2014

This is the final report for the 2013-2014 potato psyllid monitoring season. Thanks to all cooperators and collaborators for their hard work and dedication.

Fairwell to William (Bill) Warfield who retired on September 19, 2014. Thank you for your many years of service in the entomological field at the Texas A&M AgriLife Research center and with USDA-ARS in Weslaco, TX

I will maintain the Zebra Chip Monitoring Program for the 2014-2015 season.

Thanks to Dr. Charlie Rush, Li Paetzold and Joshua Correa for providing RT-PCR results, and to Bill Warfield for sample collections and processing.

Adults on Yellow Sticky Traps:

1. Texas Lower Rio Grande Valley
   - Weslaco A&M AgriLife Research Center
     - Weslaco north (biweekly sampling - no trap counts this week)
     - Weslaco south (biweekly sampling - no trap counts this week)
   - Wallace Farms
     - Trapping is over for the season
   - Burns Farms
     - Trapping is over for the season

2. Pearsall
   - Trapping is over for the season

3. Olton
   - Trapping is over for the season

4. Dalhart
   -- Trapping is over for the season

5. Nebraska
   - Trapping is over for the season

6. Colorado
   - Trapping is over for the season

7. Kansas
   - Trapping is over for the season

8. North Dakota
   - Trapping is over for the season

9. Minnesota
   - Trapping is over for the season

Eggs and Nymphs on Leaf Samples

1. Texas Lower Rio Grande Valley
   - Leaf sampling is completed for the season

2. Pearsall
   - Leaf sampling is completed for the season

3. Texas Panhandle
   - Leaf sampling is completed for the season

Report will resume when the 2014-2015 planting season begins.

Adrian Silva
Research Assistant
Subtropical Pest Management Laboratory
Zebra Chip Monitoring Program 2415 E. Highway 83 Weslaco, TX. 78596
Tel. 956-069-5652
Cell. 956-739-3288
Adrian.silva@agnet.tamu.edu